

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation. In fact I am wondering if the US is becoming communist Russia, with the FCC allowing our media to become Prada. Please protect our freedoms and keep consolidated media from changing us to the worst of central command!

Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license renewal process needs to involve more than a returned postcard. Thank you.
